

Newsletter

SSAB prepares for the future

Despite tough times for the steel industry, SSAB sees great opportunities in their new high-strength steels, which are cut in the new format by FS4 in Borlänge. An increasingly important parameter is the product's flatness.

Read more>>

Shapeline office in China

Shapeline now offers first-line support services from Beijing and has recruited full-time Shapeline sales person, Zheng Chen, to serve the Chinese market.

Read more>>

Unique standard verification

Shapeline offers a verification of the material transportation properties in the production line at the flatness gauge installation point. This is a unique service to the users and represents an important step to ensure maximum value adding from flatness measurements.

Read more>>

UPCOMING EVENTS

7-9 May

AISTECH

Meet Shapeline at AISTECH 2013 in Pittsburgh.

Read more >>

June 2013

Quality Day South America

Meet Shapeline at Quality Day South America.

Read more >>

Spring 2013

Plate flatness workshop

Shapeline organizes a series of workshops with metal plate producers. Please contact Isabelle Darmanin, Isabelle.darmanin@shapeline.com, if you are interested in a workshop for your company.

Read more>>

World's widest leveler running with Shapeline gauge

Shapeline gauge successfully installed and running in Nippon Steel No 1-line in Japan, Oita.

Read more >>

Ferroman GmbH – new representative in Germany

Shapeline appoints Ferroman GmbH, Ratingen, as Shapeline's sales and customer service representative for Germany.

Read more >>

forward to a friend

Copyright © 2016 Shapeline AB. All rights reserved.

MailChimp

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences
